

Letter from the Vicar's Desk

All about Dogs

The reason a dog has so many friends is that he wags his tail instead of his tongue.

Don't accept your dog's admiration as conclusive evidence that you are wonderful.

If there are no dogs in Heaven, then when I die, I want to go where they went.

There is no psychiatrist in the world like a puppy licking your face.

A dog is the only thing on earth that loves you more than he loves himself.

The average dog is a nicer person than the average person.

We give dogs time we can spare, space we can spare, and love we can spare. And in return, dogs give us their all. It's the best deal man's ever made.

I wonder if other dogs think poodles are members of a weird, religious cult.

A dog teaches a boy fidelity, perseverance, and to turn around three times before lying down.

Anybody who doesn't know what soap tastes like never washed a dog.

If I have any beliefs about immortality, it is that certain dogs I have known will go to heaven, and certain people I know probably won't.

If your dog is fat, you aren't getting enough exercise.

My dog is worried about the economy because Alpo is up to $3.00 a can. That's $21.00 in dog money.

Ever consider what our dogs must think of us? I mean, here we come back from a grocery store with the most amazing haul--chicken, pork, half a cow. They must think we're the greatest hunters on earth!

Women and cats will do as they please, and men and dogs should relax and get used to the idea.

If you pick up a starving dog and make him prosperous, he will not bite you; that is the principal difference between a dog and a man.

You can say any foolish thing to a dog, and the dog will give you a look that says, 'Wow, you're right! I never would've thought of that!'

Dogs are not our whole life, but they seem to make our lives whole.

If you think dogs can't count, try putting 3 dog biscuits in your pocket and then give him only 2.

My goal in life is to be as good of a person my pet already thinks I am.

Hmm! -fr.t.
