Angels: as explained by children Part II of II

When an angel gets mad, he takes a deep breath and counts to ten. And when he lets out his breath again, somewhere, there's a tornado. -Reagan, age 10

Angels have a lot to do and they keep very busy. If you lose a tooth, an angel comes in through your window and leaves money under your pillow. Then, when it gets cold, angels go south for the winter. -Sara, age 6

Angels live in cloud-houses made by God and his Son, who's a very good carpenter. -Jared, age 8

All angels are girls because they got'a wear dresses and boys didn't go for it. Tony, age 9

My angel is my grandma, who died last year. She got a big head start on helping me while she was still down here on earth. -Ashley, age 9

Some of the angels are in charge of helping heal sick animals and pets. And if they don't make the animals get better, they help the child get over it. Vicki, age 8

What I don't get about angels is why, when someone is in love, they shoot arrows at them. - Sarah, age 7
