A Family Perspective - Just like the seventy two disciples sent out by Jesus in today's gospel, families are expected to be MISSIONARIES. By our lives, words and life style we proclaim peace, commitment, fidelity and respond to a culture caught up with violence and gratifications.

The Fourth of July is our greatest patriotic holiday. It celebrates the birthday of our nation. On this day let us remember and appreciate the liberty that we enjoy as Americans. Mass will be celebrated Monday, July 4th at 8:30 a.m.

Rumors, Rumbings and Realities “On Mission for The Church Alive.” Information session by Bishop Zubik from 7 - 8:30 p.m. on Wednesday July 6th at St. Patrick in Canonsburg in the Church. No reservation necessary.

St. Francis of Assisi Planning Meeting Monday, July 25th, 6:30 p.m. in Finley Hall. All organizations must meet to schedule their dates prior to July 25th. All dates must be recorded in our Office Planning Book to take place.

Marriage Moments - Independence Day. How much independence is good in a marriage? Certainly husband and wife should be able to stand on their own two feet and not rely on their spouse for identity and self-worth: BUT interdependence is better. What do you depend on your spouse to do around your home?

Parenting Pointers - July 6th is Eid El Fitre - an Islamic fest similar to Easter. It is a day when the fasting of Ramadan ends, and Muslims feast. Religious ignorance is not good for our society. Teach your child about how others know God. (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Eid al-Fitr)

Peace - The greeting of peace at Mass adds substance to a message of today’s readings: peace is relational. When we greet in peace the person near us at Mass, we share the touch of a handshake or embrace, sincere eye contact, and friendly words.

The scriptures speak of a similar peace. The first reading from Isaiah describes the peace of the holy city, Jerusalem, a place of prosperity and comfort where the “LORD’s power shall be known to his servants” (Isaiah 66:14c).

The Christian understanding of peace changes slightly. Paul writes of the “peace and mercy” on all who are created anew. Jesus describes a feeling of peace that will rest on those who accept his disciples and their message.

Peace is both an absence of strife and a personal blessing. May we always and sincerely bring peace to our own lives as we share it with others.
