A Family Perspective - Jesus is saying to you what he said to Zacchaeus, "I must stay at your house today." It doesn't matter if in today's gospel Jesus "intended to pass through Jericho to another town." In families we sometimes stop at the wrong places. It is wisdom to "pass through" annoying family situations so we can enjoy the goodness of each other.

Marriage Moments - Oct. 31 is Halloween in which our culture celebrates spirits - both scary and beautiful. Nov. 1 is All Saints Day on which we remember the godly humans who came before us. Who inspires you to goodness?

Parenting Pointers - It's nice periodically to remember family members who have died. This need not be a sad or gruesome task but rather a way to celebrate the goodness and lessons learned from relatives who have gone before us. Familiarize your children with their deceased relatives by creating a litany of their names and good qualities.

Altar Servers needed - This is a good opportunity for families who need to get back to Church. Call us 724-348-7145 and we will take it from there. Boys and girls in 4th grade and older (high school, college, married, widowed) will be trained and schedule for weekend masses.

As our Ancestors in Faith worked to build the Kingdom of God here on earth, we have the opportunity to do the same. On Mission for the Church Alive! invites us to picture how our parishes, schools and ministries can be vital centers of worship and service and deepen our relationship with Jesus. In draft models that will be proposed at the Parish Consultation sessions we will see ways that existing parishes can be grouped together into new parishes that can provide improved ministry and outreach. Recommendations for facilities needed to serve a new parish will be suggested. No decisions have been made regarding any models; that’s why your feedback is so important.

Join us at our parish consultation on November 14th from 7:00-9:00 p.m. Following our parish meeting the draft models will be available at OnMissionChurchAlive.org.

Enjoy Books are available at the Parish Office. Lots of free coupons. $30 each book.
