

The Original King Size Bed

After weeks and weeks of all sorts of preparations, Christmas is finally here. Mary waited, anxiously, for nine months. The world awaited His arrival for thousands and thousands of years, from the time of Adam and Eve. Now, Christmas Day is here and, very likely, most of us are utterly exhausted. In His honor, we have tended to over spend, over eat, and sometimes, over drink... (Hmm!).

Now is the time to slow-down and remember how wonderful & holy this marvelous, 'God-birth-event' actually is. Christ became one of us ...to show us the way home!

Merry Christmas, dear friends. Thank you for the many cards and gifts. And may the love and peace of the Christ-child ever rest in you hearts.

*Sincerely & in Him—born in a manger,
Fr. Tusky*
