A Child May Not Inherit its' Father's Talents, but they will absorb His values.

*A careful Man I ought to be:
A little child follows me.
I do not dare to go astray:
For fear they go the selfsame way.
Not once can I escape their eyes,
What e'er they sees me do, they try.*

Like Me they say their going to be that little child who follows me.

I must remember as I go through Summer Sun and Winter Snow, I'm molding for the years to be ...That little Child who follows me.

Fathers, be careful where and how you walk!
Someone is following in your footsteps!

Happy Father's Day to all Fathers of our Parish!

A Family Perspective - Parenting is a Eucharistic activity because from the first moment of conception children consume us, our flesh, blood, energy, time and resources. If we don't sacrifice ourselves, our children would not have life. This is the priesthood of parenting. Christ is present in this self sacrifice.

Marriage Moments - Think of how your life honors your father. Also acknowledge the fathers who come by their role indirectly (foster and adoptive fathers, fathers-in-law, stepfathers, and those who have been like a father to you). Honor an honorary father this week.

Parenting Pointers - "The grass is always greener over the septic tank." (Erma Bombeck) Sometimes what looks like a parenting disaster can turn into a long remembered life lesson for your child. Share with your child a mistake you made in childhood that you learned from.

Trust In Jesus - Today's feast celebrates another central mystery of our faith—the mystery of the Eucharist. Like the mystery of the Trinity, the real presence of the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist can never be fully understood, but can only be believed. Just as the Israelites in the desert were invited to put their trust in God's word to them, we are invited to trust wholly in the word of Jesus. In today's Gospel Jesus promises to give us a share in his very own flesh and blood, and a share in eternal life besides. We are called to take him at his word and open our hearts to receive true nourishment and life from our participation in the Eucharist.
