

Letter from the Vicar's Desk

Life-lessons from a Teacher Named 'DOG'

When loved ones come home, always run to greet them.

Never pass up the opportunity to go for a ride.

Allow the experience, whenever possible, of fresh air and wind in your face to be pure ecstasy.

Take naps as often as time permits, which means frequently.

Be sure to stretch languidly before rising.

Be sure to run, romp, and play daily.

Thrive on attention and let people touch you.

Avoid biting when a simple growl will do.

On warm days, stop to lie on your back in the grass.

On hot days, drink lots of water and lie under a shady tree.

When you're happy, dance around and wag your entire body.

Delight in the simple joy of a long walk.

Eat with gusto and enthusiasm. Stop when you have had enough.

Be loyal. Never pretend to be something you're not.

If what you want lies buried, dig until you find it.

When someone is having a bad day, be silent, sit close by, and nuzzle them gently.

Be always grateful for each new day.

As has been said, you only go around once. These 'life-lessons' are a good way to go about it.

Sincerely & in Him, fr.t.
